PYP & MYP PORTFOLIO CONFERENCES

Thursday, 12 January 2023 in homeroom classrooms

16:00 – 17:30

The students have selected pieces of work to share with parents and will be in charge of the conferences. Parents can expect their children to share their strengths, best work, the work they are most proud of, and their plans for the future.

We ask parents to provide encouragement and positive feedback as their child presents their work. As other students will be conducting conferences in the classroom at the same time, we ask parents not to bring other children along and to switch mobile phones off during the conferences.

Teachers will be present to facilitate and support the conferences.

As the Portfolio Conferences replace the parent-teacher conferences this month, we encourage you to take the opportunity and contact them during their weekly individual interviews or send them an e-mail if you have any specific questions regarding the work in their portfolios.

We are looking forward to seeing you at the event!

HANDWRITING WEEK

From 23rd January until 27th January we will pay special attention to handwriting and the role it plays in the learning process, communication with our work, school community and our loved ones. The topic this year is “Write slowly and calmly.” When we are writing by hand we can focus and be mindful about how and what we write. Slowing down is a quality that is often overlooked in this rapidly changing world and can help us reflect on our own thoughts, too.

We are collecting your work until the 3rd of February.

PTA CORNER – CHRISTMAS PLAY AND FAIR

On 20 December we witnessed our last event of the calendar year. A marvelous Christmas Play prepared by our students and a very festive Family Christmas Fair, full of wintry wonders and activities, prepared by our PTA. It was really an unforgettable event which, along with the poignant play, included beautiful ballet and some classic Christmas songs all performed by the PYP students, making for wonderful preparation for the holiday Season, some of the teachers even got in on the act too.

Thank you all for your contribution!

Best wishes,

Klemen Strmljan
